Eligibility: Municipal economic developers and agricultural economic developers, corporations, cooperatives, partnerships, LLC's, etc.

Type of Program and Special Restrictions: None

Action Required to Receive Aid: None

Description of Aid:

Department staff assists agri-businesses in obtaining access to conventional and public financing sources. Assistance is also provided to municipal economic developers in obtaining access to various State financing programs.

Comments:

Division staff provide technical assistance primarily to municipal economic developers and agri-businesses who are seeking financing to complete an expansion of an existing agri-business or the creation of a new agri-business. Assistance is provided in the form of guidance on accessing conventional and public financing. Staff is available to meet with local officials or businesses to discuss business development or expansion plans.

AGRICULTURAL DISTRICTS PROGRAM

(Technical Assistance Program)

Objective: Agricultural districts are created by county legislative bodies pursuant to local landowner initiative. Participating landowners are eligible for a number of benefits intended to encourage the maintenance of land in active agricultural production including: agricultural assessment, limitations on improvement district assessments, right to farm support, protections against unwanted public acquisitions of farmland or advance of public funds for non-farm development within farm areas and limitation on local laws or regulations that would unreasonably restrict or regulate farm practices or structures.

Description of Aid:

Department staff assist counties in the formation of districts and the renewal of existing districts. They also assist all levels of local government in complying with those provisions of the Agricultural Districts Law (Article 25-AA) which may be applicable.

Comments:

Division staff provide technical assistance primarily to county planners and cooperative extension agents who have a significant role in the creation and review of agricultural districts. Technical assistance is primarily in the form of guidance on State statutory requirements. Assistance is provided by telephone or in person, as needed. Staff also are available to meet with county legislative bodies and county agricultural and farmland protection boards to discuss agricultural district issues.

Eligibility: Counties, Towns and Villages. All dog licensing municipalities within NYS outside of New York City.

Type of Program and Special Restrictions: Mandated, required by State law or regulation.

Action Required to Receive Aid: No action required, automatic payment.

Description of Aid: Provide dog licensing forms and conduct annual inspections for mandated dog control officers and shelters.

Comments:

Although dog control and identification is primarily a local function, Article 7 of the Agriculture and Markets Law empowers the Department of Agriculture and Markets to set standards for the humane care of seized dogs, inspect municipal shelters, and train and assist enforcement officers. Article 7 does not apply to New York City, which has a separate dog control law. Under Article 7, the Department of Agriculture and Markets provides the following technical assistance to the 1,043 municipalities which issue dog licenses in the State: (1) Inspection of municipal shelters and establishment of standards for the care of seized dogs; (2) Municipal compliance inspections for record-keeping, licensing enforcement, procedures for handling dangerous dogs, and procedures and methods of euthanasia; (3) Receipt and accounting for license fees and tag replacement fees, (4) Assisting and training municipal dog control officials; (5) Maintaining a central registry file of all identified dogs, and a computer listing of dog owners; (6) Mailing pre-printed dog license renewal application forms directly to all dog owners throughout the State (excluding New York City); and (7) Supplying town clerks and other local dog control officers with miscellaneous forms required for enforcement of Article 7.
